

Longtime supporters of Karinya House, South Australian winemaker Marnie Roberts and Sydney/Canberra wineseller Sean Trenoweth were having a few quiet drinks and realised that:

- A) Times are tough and people need outstanding value for money
- B) Good Shiraz is great with red meat
- C) Food and wine matching is fun, but people take it a little too seriously

From these discussions, the Two loose Wine Co. was born and 2016 Not for Vegans McLaren Vale Shiraz is the first wine from this collaboration. It has been created to be enjoyed with red meat, be it a BBQ, osso bucco or crumbed cutlets. Like all of Marnie’s wines, it is vegan friendly, so if you are bunging some mushrooms on the barbie, it will fit the bill too!

For each case sold, Two loose Wine Co. will donate $50 to Karinya House

Normal RRP $240/dozen ($20/bottle)
